WASHINGTON	YES. "every Washingtonian must wear a facial covering when in a public space, as mandated by the public health order signed by Wiesman. This includes both indoor and outdoor public spaces."	Governor and Secretary of Health issued statewide Department of Health face covering order
WEST VIRGINIA	NO. Reopening personal care services (barbershops, salons, etc.) must ensure all employees wear masks.  Restaurants open for takeout, or that will reopen for dining when the state permits, must require all employees to wear face coverings at all times.  Small businesses (10 or fewer employees) are recommended to require their employees who have contact with customers to wear a mask and gloves.	Executive Order 32-20
WISCONSIN	NO. People should wear a cloth face cover when outside the home conducting essential activities	Recommendation by the Wisconsin State Department of Health
WYOMING	NO. "While some states have mask orders in place, which puts businesses that choose not to enforce the rule at risk of losing state aid or licensing, Wyoming has only issued a mask recommendation," reports Cowboy State Daily. "Wearing a face covering is absolutely not a substitute for social distancing, which remains important to slowing the spread of this virus," said Wyoming State Health Officer Alexia Harrist, adding that her department "still advises residents the cloth covering is better than nothing at all."	No Statewide Mask Mandate is in Place
