that no notification is given the Memorandum of Understanding shall be extended for twelve months without change.

ARTICLE 7 – NON-DISCRIMINATION

The parties mutually recognize and agree fully to protect the rights of all employees hereby to join and participate in the activities of the Union and all other applicable rights provided by the Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Relations Act. No employee shall be interfered with, intimidated, restrained, coerced or discriminated against because of the exercise of these rights.

The provisions of this Memorandum of Understanding shall be applied equally to all employees covered hereby without favor or discrimination because of race, color, sex, age, national origin, political or religious opinions or affiliations, disability status, sexual orientation or any other protected class provided by law.

ARTICLE 8 - DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

No employee (except during their probationary period) shall be subject to discipline without cause. Probationary employees shall not be allowed to appeal any discipline.

Discipline and Discharge Standards

Discipline will usually be imposed progressively. Progressive discipline will normally include one or more written warnings and/or a suspension before a termination is imposed. However, subject to the appeal process contained herein, deviations from this procedure may occur whenever it is determined that circumstances warrant that one or more steps in the progressive discipline procedure be skipped. The circumstances shall include but not necessarily be limited to the gravity of the offense. Accordingly, circumstances may warrant an immediate suspension or termination.

With the exception of layoffs for organizational necessity, discipline, up to and including termination, will be for cause. For purposes of this policy, “for cause” will have the same meaning as that set forth in Government Code Section 71805(e).

Administrative Leave

The Court Executive Officer or designee may, at any time during the time when a charge(s) is pending against a regularly scheduled employee, place the employee on paid administrative leave. Administrative leave with pay shall not be considered corrective action as defined in this article and shall not be subject to challenge.

1. Notice of Discipline/Discharge

When the Court Executive Officer or designee is considering disciplinary action consisting of a suspension, termination or demotion/reduction in pay, the affected employee will be given written notice of the proposed disciplinary action. A copy of the notice will be sent simultaneously to the Union. The notice will include (a) the proposed action to be taken, the date it is intended to become effective, and the specific grounds and particular facts upon which the proposed disciplinary action will be taken; (b) the materials upon which the charge(s) is based or a statement indicating where the materials upon which the charge is based are available for inspection, or a combination of the two; and (c) a statement informing the employee of his or her right to respond, either orally or in writing, to the charge(s), by the date specified in the notice.

If the employee does not respond to the charge(s) within the time specified in the notice of proposed disciplinary action, the proposed disciplinary action will be considered conclusive and will take effect as described in the notice of proposed disciplinary action. If the employee responds to the charge(s) within the time specified in the notice of proposed disciplinary action, the court shall consider the employee's response and all of the information upon which the charge(s) is based. The Court Executive Officer or designee shall then issue a determination on the notice of proposed disciplinary action.

If the determination includes disciplinary action consisting of a suspension, a termination, or a demotion/reduction in pay, the employee, or the Union on behalf of the employee (with the employee's written approval) may appeal such determination in writing, within 10 business days of the date that the Court Executive Officer or designee issued the determination. If no such appeal is filed in a timely manner, the determination of disciplinary action shall stand. If the Union is unable to obtain the employee's signature before filing the appeal, it shall obtain the employee's written approval within thirty calendar days of filing the appeal.

2. Arbitration to Review of Disciplinary Decisions

In the event that an employee in a timely manner files an appeal as described in section 1 above, a binding arbitration will take place. Within 10 business days of the date that the employee files the notice of appeal, the court and the employee, or if the employee is represented, the employee's representative, shall attempt mutually to agree on an experienced labor arbitrator to hear the case. The parties may extend this date by mutual consent. If the parties are unable mutually to select an arbitrator, they shall request a list of seven experienced labor arbitrators from the State Mediation and Conciliation Service or another mutually acceptable source.

The hearing shall result in an appropriate record with a written report that has findings of fact and conclusions that reference the evidence. The employee and Court Executive Officer or designee shall have the right to call witnesses and present evidence. The Court Executive Officer or designee will release trial court employees to testify at the hearing upon adequate notice. The hearing officer has the authority to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and subpoenas duces tecum for the production of books, records, documents, and other evidence as provided in Section 1282.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The employee has the right to representation, including legal counsel, if provided by the employee.

The arbitrator's report will be limited to the issue of whether "cause" existed for the discipline imposed. The arbitrator does not have authority to add to, detract from, alter, amend, or modify the Memorandum of Understanding or any of the court's rules, policies, or procedures. Fees and expenses of the arbitrator and court reporter shall be split equally between the parties.

Court witnesses released to testify at the hearing will be released with pay.

3. Representation

At any investigatory interview that the employee might reasonably believe would lead to discipline of the employee, the employee has the right to have a shop steward or union representative present during the interview upon the request of the employee. If the employee's preferred shop steward or union representative is not available to attend a meeting scheduled by the court, the employee shall arrange for an alternative shop steward or union representative to be present. If no alternative shop steward or union representative can be found to represent the employee at the investigatory interview, the Court shall reschedule the scheduled interview within three business days, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

3. As used in this procedure, the term “immediate supervisor” means the individual identified by the CEO or designee.
4. A “grievance” is a dispute of one or more employees, or the Union involving the interpretation, application or the enforcement of the express terms of this MOU.
5. A “complaint” is a dispute of one or more employees involved in the application or interpretation of a rule or policy not covered by this MOU. Complaints shall only be processed as far as Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

2. If the Court fails to respond to a grievance within the time limits specified at each step, the grievant shall have the right to appeal to the next step.
3. Any level of review, or time limits established in this procedure, may be waived or extended by mutual agreement confirmed in writing and shall include notice to the Union.
4. Failure by the grievant to respond within the time limits specified at any step shall settle the grievance on the basis of the last decision and the grievance shall not be subject to further appeal or reconsideration.
5. By mutual written agreement, the grievance may revert to a prior level for reconsideration.

1. Employees have the right to represent themselves at each step of the grievance procedure. Employees shall not have the right to move grievances to arbitration without union representation.

4. The Court will notify the Union promptly in writing of all grievances filed.
5. Court employees who are witnesses in a formal grievance meeting may attend the formal grievance meeting on paid court time.
6. Upon request, the union shall have the right to obtain a copy of a settlement that involves the interpretation or application of the terms of this Agreement when an employee is not represented by the Union.
7. Consistent with law, the Court shall provide the Union with the necessary information to process the grievance.

Informal Conference

The employee may discuss any potential grievance with his or her immediate supervisor within eight (8) business days after the occurrence or discovery of the alleged grievance to attempt to resolve the matter. The immediate supervisor will, upon request of the employee, discuss the employee's complaint with the employee at a mutually satisfactory time. The employee may elect to have a union representative attend such meeting. The supervisor shall respond to the employee within eight (8) business days after the initial conference. Any informal resolution of a dispute at this step shall not set a precedent. Participation in this informal step shall not extend the deadline for filing a formal grievance.

Formal Grievance – Step 1

- A. No later than twenty (20) business days after the occurrence or discovery of the matter on which the grievance is based, an employee, group of employees or the Union, may file a formal written grievance.
- B. 1. A formal grievance shall be initiated in writing on a form provided by the Court and shall be filed with the Human Resources office of the grievant's home court. The employee will retain a copy. The Human Resources office shall provide a receipt, or shall initial and date the employee's copy to show receipt.
 2. If an interpreter, or the Union on behalf of an interpreter(s), files a grievance concerning a cross assignment and matters related to the away court, the grievance shall be filed with the home court and the Regional Chair. If the matter does not resolve at the first level of review, it may, upon mutual agreement, be appealed directly to the Regional Chair.

C. The grievance form shall contain the following information:

1. The name(s) of the grievant(s) and representative;
2. The specific provision of the MOU alleged to have been violated;

6. The remedy requested;
7. Signature of the grievant(s) and the date filed; and
8. The addresses to which all correspondence and responses should be sent.

D. Within ten (10) business days of the receipt of the grievance, the designated court Management representative will meet with the grievant and the Union representative (if any). Within ten (10) business days following such meeting, the Management representative shall respond in writing to the grievance.

E. No settlement made at this stage of the grievance procedure shall be considered precedent setting.

Formal Grievance – Step 2

A. Within ten (10) business days after receipt of the decision at Step 1, the grievant may appeal to the Executive officer or designated representative using a copy of the grievance.

B. Within ten (10) business days from the date the submitted grievance appeal to Step 2 is received, the CEO or designated representative who has not been involved in the grievance at any prior level shall meet with the grievant and representative, if any, to discuss the grievance with the grievant and representative, if any. Thereafter, the CEO or his/her designee will provide a written decision not more than ten (10) business days following the grievance meeting.

C. If the CEO or designated representative fails to give a decision within the specified time limit, the Union may elect to refer the unresolved grievance to arbitration.

D. No settlement made at this stage of the grievance procedure shall be considered precedent setting.

Arbitration – Step 3

A. Within thirty (30) business days from receipt of the written decision of the Executive Officer or designated representative, the Union shall have the right to submit an unresolved grievance to arbitration. The Union's request for arbitration shall be made in writing to the Court Executive Officer.

- B. If no request for arbitration is made within thirty (30) business days, the decision of the CEO shall be final and binding. If the CEO fails to respond in writing at Step 2, the Union shall have thirty (30) days from the date the decision was due to request arbitration. In either case, a failure to timely request arbitration shall be deemed a waiver of the right to arbitration.
- C. Within five (5) business days after receipt of a timely written request for arbitration, the parties will attempt to select a neutral arbitrator from a mutually agreed source. If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator, the parties will request that a panel of seven potential arbitrators from the State mediation and Conciliation Service or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service be sent to the both parties. Upon receipt of the list, the parties will select an arbitrator using a strike off procedure. The party to strike the first name shall be determined by coin toss.
- D. The fees and expenses associated with the arbitrator, the transcript and the court reporter shall be shared equally by the parties. All other expenses including but not limited to, fees for witnesses, transcripts and similar costs incurred by the parties during such arbitration, will be the responsibility of the individual party involved.
- E. Upon mutual agreement of the parties, a pre-arbitration meeting may be held.
- F. Both parties shall jointly consider whether the type of case involved lends itself to mediation. If, through mediation, the parties can reach a mutually acceptable disposition, the disposition shall become final and binding upon the parties. If the mediation process does not result in an acceptable resolution to both parties, the case shall be submitted to arbitration.
- G. The written decision of an arbitrator resulting from any arbitration or grievance shall not add to, subtract from, or otherwise modify the terms and conditions of this MOU.
- H. The written decision of an arbitrator resulting from any arbitration of grievances hereunder shall be final and binding.

ARTICLE 10 – GRIEVANCE MEDIATION

2. A grievance may be submitted to grievance mediation only by mutual agreement between the Union and Management.

3. After completion of the third step of the grievance procedure and by mutual agreement, either Management or the Union may request the assistance of a mediator from the State Mediation and conciliation Service to resolve the grievance. It is the intent of the parties that the grievance mediation session shall begin as soon as practicable consistent with the mediator's schedule. In the alternative, the parties may agree upon another person to serve as mediator. The cost, if any, of the mediation session shall be split evenly by the parties.
4. The parties agree that no stenographic record of the session will be made and there will be no pre- or post-hearing briefs filed.
5. The mediator's role shall be to assist the parties to reach agreement. The mediator shall not have authority to impose a settlement on the parties. Any final settlement of the grievance shall be reduced to writing and signed by Management, the Union and the grievant. The final agreement shall be binding on all parties.
6. The mediator may provide the parties with a private, informal non-binding assessment of the procedural and substantive merits of the dispute, and how an arbitrator may likely decide the grievance.
7. All mediation sessions shall be confidential. The content of the mediation proceedings, including, but not limited to, settlement proposal or any concessions agreed to or offered during mediation, shall not be admissible in an arbitration of this grievance or any other similar dispute.

ARTICLE 11 – EXPEDITED ARBITRATION

1. This is an alternative to the procedures set forth the Arbitration Section of Article 9, Grievance Procedure, and will only be utilized upon mutual written agreement of the parties.
2. Prior to the hearing a joint submission statement setting forth the issue(s) to be determined will be prepared and submitted to the arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree to a submission statement, each party shall present to the arbitrator its own submission statement and the arbitrator shall determine the issue(s) to be resolved.
3. The parties will select an arbitrator from the panel of arbitrators previously agreed to by the parties and established for the purpose of conducting expedited arbitration proceedings.
 - A. The arbitrator will be compensated at the contracted for flat daily rate. The cost of the arbitrator will be borne equally by the parties. In addition, each party will pay for all fees and expenses incurred by that party on its behalf, including, but not limited to, witness fees.

- B. The parties agree that 1) no stenographic record of the hearing will be made, and 2) there will be no post-hearing briefs.
4. The arbitrator selected will hear the grievance(s) within ten (10) business days of his/her selection, or a later date if agreed upon by the parties and may hear multiple cases during the course of the day.
 5. Arbitration of a grievance hereunder will be limited to the unresolved issue(s) of the formal written grievance as originally filed by the employee to the extent that said grievance has not been satisfactorily resolved.
 6. The arbitrator will issue a “bench” decision at the conclusion of the parties’ testimony, and closing oral argument. Only by mutual agreement of the parties and the arbitrator will a written decision be issued.
 7. The decision of an arbitrator resulting from the arbitration of a grievance hereunder will be binding upon the parties.

The waiver of any breach, term or condition of this MOU by either party shall not constitute a precedent in the future enforcement of all its terms and provisions.

Section 2

It is understood and agreed that the provisions of this Section are intended to apply only to matters that are not specifically covered by this agreement.

With respect to matters not specifically covered by this agreement, existing policies, procedures and practices shall govern.

Within the next twenty workdays, the new employee may receive one additional day of paid in-service training while performing an assignment. This additional day of training shall be based upon the need of the new employee established in conjunction with Court management. All such training shall be consistent with Court policy.

Employees who wish to volunteer to provide the in-service training shall notify the Court Executive Officer or designee. Assignment to provide the training shall be made by the Court. (b) For purposes of assignments, the Court will make reasonable efforts to contact as-needed interpreters on the basis of seniority. Consideration as to reasonable efforts shall include but not necessarily be limited to time constraints, geographic location, and/or multi-language needs when an interpreter is certified/registered in more than one language.

(c) When the Court telephones an as needed interpreter to give an assignment, and the assignment is scheduled two business days ahead, or more, the Court will allow four hours for the interpreters to return the call. The senior interpreter responding during the four-hour window period shall receive the assignment.

(d) When the Court telephones an as needed interpreter to give an assignment, and the assignment is scheduled the next business day and the call is made before noon, the Court will allow two hours for the interpreters to return the call. The senior interpreter responding during the two-hour window period shall receive the assignment.

(e) If an as needed assignment is same day, or after noon the day before, the Court will make reasonable efforts to contact as needed employee interpreters on the basis of seniority as set forth above in paragraph (b).

Except for extraordinary circumstances, the Court will not contact non-opt out independent contractors for as needed assignments until it has contacted or attempted to contact all of the as-needed employees in that language pair. It is recognized by the parties that extraordinary circumstances may include, but are not necessarily limited to, time constraints for same day assignments.

The Court will use the most current telephone number provided by the interpreter.

Current part-time and intermittent employees will be given first consideration for full-time and regular part time job openings in their language pair based upon seniority.

For as-needed assignments for intermittent and part-time employees, once the offer of work has been extended and accepted, both the Court's decision not to provide work and the interpreter's decision to withdraw from the assignment shall be subject to 24 hours notice.

Section 6. Judicial Officers

ARTICLE 20 - CROSS-ASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES

Definitions

- (1) Home court: The superior court in which the court interpreter is an employee. An employee's home court includes all locations of a Superior Court within a county.
- (2) Away Court: The superior court in which the court interpreter is temporarily cross-assigned.
- (3) Cross assignment: Any assignment to perform spoken language interpretation for a superior court other than the interpreter's home court where the interpreter actually travels outside of their home court to an away court.
- (4) Regional court interpreter coordinator: An employee of the Administrative Office of the Courts whose duty it is to locate, assign and schedule available court interpreter employees for courts within and across regions, which are described under Government Code 71807(a).
- (5) Local court interpreter coordinator: An employee of a superior court whose duty it is to locate, assign, and schedule available court interpreter employees for his or her court.

This article covers cross-assignments within Region 2 of court interpreters who are employees of trial courts within Region 2. Interpreters shall not be required to accept a cross assignment.

Section 1 – Eligibility

A court interpreter employed by a trial court may not be an employee of or contract to perform interpreting services with another California trial court, but may accept cross assignments to provide services to more than one trial court within Region 2 or outside the region through this cross assignment process.

As provided for in this Memorandum of Understanding, employees may accept regular long-term cross assignments in away courts.

Section 2 - Notification of General Availability and Lists

Court interpreters who wish to make themselves available for cross-assignment shall notify both the local court interpreter coordinator in their home court and the Region 2 coordinator. The list of those interpreters who have agreed to be cross-assigned to any court in Region 2 shall be generated and maintained in seniority order (as defined in Article 18) by language by the Region 2 coordinator and distributed to all Region 2 local coordinators, and be made available to the union upon written request. The interpreter must provide the coordinator with their home address. It is agreed and understood that per Article 18, the Region shall establish the initial seniority list.

Section 3 - Scheduling Cross-Assignments

The home court will have the first right of assignment for employees. Employees may accept an offer of cross-assignment only when the home court does not need the employee during the time frame in question.

For a single day or partial day cross-assignment, if the home Court declines to allow an employee to accept a cross-assignment because it has an assignment for the employee, the home court shall provide the employee with work or pay equivalent to the cross assignment opportunity.

In the event of a multi-day cross assignment offer, if the home court needs the employee for a portion of the cross-assignment period, approval of the cross assignment shall be contingent upon the employee being required to work the day(s) necessary in the home court. In the event that the employee is needed by the home court, the home court shall make reasonable efforts to identify another certified or registered interpreter to fill the need. The home court will respond to the request for approval of a multi-day cross assignment within two business days.

Section 4- Interpreter Employee Priority for Assignment By Way of Cross Assignment

In the event that a court exhausts its employees and local opt out interpreters and needs interpreter services, it shall make a good faith effort to obtain an interpreter employee from another trial court in Region 2, who is available for cross assignment before engaging non-opt out independent contractors.

“Local opt-out interpreter” means an opt-out interpreter who provided services to the trial court prior to November 18, 2005.

A good faith effort to fill the assignment with interpreter employees employed by other trial courts means offering the assignments to interpreter employees through the AOC Region 2 assignment coordinator. A good faith effort means offering the assignment in seniority order to interpreter employees on the cross assignment lists referenced in section 2 above. Notwithstanding this provision, the Court is not obligated to offer the assignment to the senior employee if either of the following circumstances apply:

1. The senior interpreter resides more than 75 miles away from the assignment location; or
2. When the judicial officer presiding in the case rejects the senior interpreter.

This Section is not intended to eliminate regular long-term cross assignments.

When the Coordinator telephones interpreters to offer cross assignments, and the telephone calls are made before noon for an assignment the next business day, the Coordinator will allow two hours for the interpreters to return the call. The senior interpreter responding during the two-hour window period shall receive the assignment.

For calls made the afternoon of the day before the assignment, the window period for the interpreter to return the call to the Coordinator shall be one hour.

If the assignment is scheduled two or more full business days ahead of the initial call (e.g. Tuesday for a Friday morning assignment) the window period for the interpreter to return the call to the coordinator shall be four hours.

For same day cross assignments, this procedure shall not apply.

The Regional Coordinator shall keep a log of calls to and from interpreters made pursuant to this provision.

Section 5- Payment Schedule and Procedures for Cross-Assignment

An employee who accepts a cross-assignment shall receive compensation from the home court consistent with this Memorandum of Understanding.

The home court shall pay, promptly, all reasonable expenses, incurred by the employee for assignment in the home court or cross assignments within Region 2 that are documented and consistent with the AOC travel expense policies. Employees who accept a cross assignment shall be compensated for reasonable travel time, in excess of one hour, per assignment.

Section 6- Cancellations

For as-needed cross assignments to intermittent and part time employees, once the offer of work has been extended and accepted, both the Court's decision not to provide work and the interpreter's decision to withdraw from the assignment shall be subject to notice as described in this section.

A single or partial day, or a two-day cross-assignment shall be subject to 24-hour, or one business day, cancellation notice. For assignments beginning on the first business day of the work week, notice must be given by the assignment start time on the last business day of the prior workweek.

Assignments to proceedings pre-scheduled to last three days or longer (such as trials and evidentiary proceedings) are subject to a 48-hour (two business days) cancellation notice.

For assignments cancelled without adequate notice as described above, the home or the away court will provide the interpreter an alternative assignment or the away court shall pay to the employee the number of hours for the assignment up to a maximum of eight hours. In the event that the employee cancels with less than 24 hours notice, they may be subject to disciplinary action.

Section 7- Cross-Assignment Procedures and Grievances

Interpreters on cross assignment are responsible for following the procedures and personnel rules of the home court. Employee complaints and grievances regarding matters arising in the away court may be brought to the attention of the employee's supervisor and may be resolved subject to the terms of this Memorandum of Understanding.

Section 8- Implementation

This cross assignment procedure shall not become operative until the seniority list is established. Once the procedure is operative, during the first 30 calendar days, there shall be no grievances filed concerning possible violations of this provision. After 30 days, if either side desires, the parties shall meet to discuss any operational problems associated with the implementation of this provision.

Section 3

The Region will provide reasonable release time without loss of pay or employment benefits for unit employees released under this section. Up to five unit employees will be released for the purpose of negotiating a labor agreement or successor labor agreement with the Region 2 Negotiating Committee. For all other meet-and-confer sessions, up to two (2) unit employees will be released. In courts with more than fifteen (15) bargaining unit employees, up to three (3) bargaining unit employees will be released with no more than two (2) from any one court with fifteen (15) or less bargaining unit employees, for purposes of meet and confer.

Section 4

Any time spent performing the functions of a steward outside of the normal business day, or any time spent on a day when a steward is not otherwise scheduled for work, shall not be compensated by the Court. Following a meeting in a different court, management will make reasonable efforts to return a steward to work at his/her work location.

ARTICLE 38 – ACCESS

Union representatives shall have access to the trial court's premises to ensure that the terms of the MOU are being followed. A union representative, other than a bargaining unit employee, shall notify the CEO or designee in advance when he or she will require access to non-public areas other than interpreter break rooms and waiting areas for the purpose of ensuring the terms of the MOU are being followed. The authorized representative shall not disrupt employees during their work time.

ARTICLE 39– BULLETIN BOARDS

- A. The Union may use designated, adequate bulletin board space provided by the court to post communications of the employee organization at each interpreter waiting area/office where members of this unit are assigned. In facilities where there is no waiting area/office space, the Court shall provide adequate, accessible bulletin board space in non-public areas where bargaining unit members work. Any materials posted shall be dated and initialed by the Union representative responsible for the posting.
- B. The Union agrees not to post any material of an illegal, libelous, obscene, defamatory, or solely non-educational partisan political nature on bulletin boards.

ARTICLE 40- SUBCONTRACTING UNIT WORK

To the extent that a Court determines to subcontract unit work presently performed or hereafter assigned to the unit, it shall subcontract such work consistent with the limitations set forth in Government Code Section 71802. The Court agrees that it will not use Section 71802 for the purpose of reducing costs.

ARTICLE 41 – PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All newly hired employees shall serve an initial probationary period. Full time employees shall serve a probationary period of 9 months. Part time employees shall serve a probationary period of 1560 hours or 18 months, whichever is less.

ARTICLE 42- NO STRIKE/NO LOCKOUT

A. No Strikes or Lockouts

During the term of this Agreement, the Union, its officers, agents, representatives, stewards and members and all other employees shall not, in any way, directly or indirectly, engage in any strike, sympathy strike, slowdown, work stoppage, picketing, or any other interference with or interruption of court work in any Court operations. The Court agrees that it will not lock out employees.

B. Crossing Sanctioned Picket Lines

If an employee covered by this Agreement is expected to cross a picket line set up due to a labor dispute sanctioned by a Central Labor Council in the Region, and if crossing that picket line is in conflict with the employee's conscience, the Chief Executive Officer or his/her designee will meet with the Union, if requested, within 24 hours to attempt to reassign the employee in a manner which retains Court services and does not result in disciplinary action against the employee.

ARTICLE 43- JOB ABANDONMENT

When an employee fails to report for work for five consecutive scheduled working days without any notice to court management, the employee shall be considered to have abandoned his or her employment.

The court will provide a notice of separation due to job abandonment to the employee. The notice shall be delivered to the employee in person or mailed to the employee at the employee's address of record. The employee's address of record shall be the most recent address provided to the court by the employee. In either case, the notice will include a proof of service and a copy will immediately be provided to the union.

Within 15 business days of the issuance of the notice, the employee, or the union on behalf of the employee, may make a written request for reinstatement. The court may reinstate the employee at its discretion. The court shall reinstate employees who can demonstrate that their absence without notice was due to circumstances beyond their control.

An employee so reinstated shall not be paid salary for the period of his or her absence. However, if the absence can appropriately be covered by leave with pay (e.g., sick leave), the employee shall be paid.
